commonly referred to as a "stretch limousine" or other motor carrier designed or modified for purposes of having a seating capacity of nine 3 or more passengers including the driver; provided further, however, that 4 a violation of such subdivision if the operator is operating an altered 5 motor vehicle commonly referred to as a "stretch limousine" or other 6 motor carrier designed or modified for purposes of having a seating 7 capacity of nine or more passengers while carrying one or more passen-8 gers other than the driver shall, for a first conviction thereof, be 9 punished by a fine of not less than one thousand dollars or by imprison-10 ment for not more than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprison-11 ment and for a conviction of a second violation, both of which were committed within a period of eighteen months, an operator shall be 12 punished by a fine of not less than one thousand dollars and not more 13 14 than two thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment if the operator is operating 15 16 an altered motor vehicle commonly referred to as a "stretch limousine" 17 or other motor carrier designed or modified for purposes of having a seating capacity of nine or more passengers including the driver. 18 19

- § 3. Paragraph 5 of subdivision (h) of section 1180 of the vehicle and traffic law, as amended by section 8 of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as follows:
- 5. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this subdivision, the maximum fine provided herein for the violation for which the person is sentenced may be increased by an additional one hundred fifty dollars if the conviction is for a second violation of any subdivision of this section where both violations were committed within an eighteen month period or where the conviction is for a first violation of any subdivision of this section in which the operator was operating an altered motor vehicle commonly referred to as a "stretch limousine" or other motor carrier designed or modified for purposes of having a seating capacity of nine or more passengers while carrying one or more passengers other than the driver, and the maximum fine provided herein for the violation for which the person is sentenced may be increased by an additional three hundred seventy-five dollars if the conviction is for a third or subsequent violation of any subdivision of this section where all such violations were committed within an eighteen month period or where the conviction is for a second or subsequent violation of any subdivision of this section in which the operator was operating an altered motor vehicle commonly referred to as a "stretch limousine" or other motor carrier designed or modified for purposes of having a seating capacity of nine or more passengers while carrying one or more passengers other than the driver. Where an additional fine is provided by this paragraph, a sentence of imprisonment for not more than thirty days may be imposed in place of or in addition to any fine imposed.
- § 4. This act shall take effect one year after it shall have become a law; provided, however that if part III of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019 shall not have taken effect on or before such date, then section one of this act shall take effect on the same date and in the same manner as such part of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019 takes effect.
